

Lesson 3 Questions

Q1: Is there any “one trick” that will work to make a successful emergency landing every time?

Q2: What are some advantages of executing a forced landing in a farm field?

Q3: What are some disadvantages of executing a forced landing in a farm field?

Q4: What are advantages of targeting roads

Q5: What are disadvantages of targeting roads for forced landing

Q6: What does it Mean to “be willing to sacrifice the airplane”

Q7: What is the benefit of making an emergency landing into the wind?

Q8: What are options to fix an emergency approach that is too steep?

Q9: T/F: When practicing emergency approaches, it is best to delay landing gear extension to create the most realistic environment possible.

Q10: When evacuating an aircraft after a water landing, what should you grab to help you find the exit.

Q11: T/F: If travel through the aircraft is required, occupants should swim for the exit.

Q12: If you must fly outside of gliding distance from land, at a minimum you should carry:

Q13: If flying over inhospitable terrain or sparsely populated areas, what are two important factors in ensuring an effective rescue.